Trustworthy Companies Meet the Needs of All Stakeholders Including Shareholders

In November 2010, Trust Across America selected 59 companies that qualified for Gold Portfolio status according to our FACTS™ Model. Starting with a universe of approximately 2400 public companies, this group consists of all companies having above average scores on each of the five drivers of trustworthy business behavior as defined by Trust Across America.

As of March 2012, this portfolio is outperforming the market by 500 basis points (20% vs. 15% for the S&P 500.)
